

Want to be part of the next Temple Caché's crazy idea ?

Temple Caché is waiting for you, young and dynamic Art Director.

No seriously, our next campaigns, be it for super luxury brands (Audemars Piguet, Hermès, Dior, Kiehl's), sport (Lacoste), music or even the food industry, need a new vision. Yours maybe ?

Be it for films, events, augmented reality, photos, digital contents, from pitching to animating, shooting, you could do it all.

Mixing medias, techniques (live action, 2D/3D, collage) materials & realities.

With your own eyes, both serving and reinventing Temple Caché's touch.

No dogma of what's cool and what's not.

Even better if it's weird and odd. Mmh that's kind of a dogma.

Anyways, it needs to be relevant ;)

This could start with an internship but it could end being a confirmed art director and/or director at multi-awarded collective Temple Caché.

All this, under the sun, in the South of France (near Montpellier).

When ? From January 2024 'til the end of times. Haha. Lol.. :)
